Lippo Cikarang Supports Bekasi Layak Anak Through Declaration of School Health Business

Cikarang – Lippo Cikarang supports the Bekasi Regency Women and Children Empowerment Office (DP3A) in declaring a School/Madrasah Health Business Development Team at the South Cikarang sub-district level in District 1 Meikarta Lippo Cikarang, Wednesday (08/12/21).

The declaration was also attended by H. Agus Dahlan, Head of South Cikarang Sub-district, Head of Section for Public Health, District Health Office. Bekasi Hj. Belongs to Sapiah, Head of UPTD Pendidikan Kec. South Cikarang Odih, and representatives from each school in the South Cikarang and surrounding areas.

Jeffrey Rawis, Head of Public Relations of PT Lippo Cikarang Tbk said: "Lippo Cikarang supports Bekasi Regency to become a Child-friendly area, as previously we inaugurated a smart house in Sukadami Village, facilitated Child Vaccination, and also supported the Declaration of the Team for the Coaching of School Health Business. Lippo Cikarang's CSR activities currently focus on children's development and creativity activities."

Lippo Cikarang hopes that through this activity, Bekasi Regency, especially South Cikarang, can become an example in Indonesia for inspiring movements in making the area or area suitable for children.

"Appreciation to Lippo Cikarang for helping with programs for children, and this is the second time we have collaborated after previously holding child vaccinations. We do all of this for children, especially the South Cikarang area, "explained the Head of the District Women's and Children's Empowerment Service. Bekasi Ani Gustini in her speech.
