Lippo Cikarang dan Polres Metro Bekasi Distribute Packages Basic Needs for Citizens

Cikarang, 21/9/22: Management of Lippo Cikarang distributed basic food packages to the community through the Bekasi Metro Police, last Tuesday (20/9/22). Packages of basic necessities consisting of rice, sugar, cooking oil, instant noodles and tea were distributed to a number of underprivileged residents including industrial workers in the Cikarang area, Bekasi Regency, West Java

"We are grateful to PT Lippo Cikarang for providing packages of basic needs as social cushion after the increase in fuel prices to be distributed to those affected," said Head of Intelligence Unit for the Bekasi Metro Police, AKBP Ervin Isdrianto SE, M.Sc, Tuesday (20 /9/22) during the symbolic handover.

The aid package was delivered directly by PT Lippo Cikarang's CSR Team Secretary, Jeffrey Rawis, to be distributed by the Bekasi Metro Police to those in need.

"The quantity of this assistance is not much, because of course there are many who need it. Let it be mutual cooperation by the Bekasi Metro Police initiative, there are still many other parties who will participate in providing basic needs assistance, so that more residents can be reached," said Jeffrey Rawis.

It is hoped that the assistance from the 'Corporate Social Responsibility' (CSR) division of PT Lippo Cikarang Tbk can become part of the social cushion, thus easing the burden on residents who are directly affected by the increase in fuel prices.*
